Teach Like a CHAMPION®

Newsletter Number 2

Wow what a wonderful response to the Newsletter. This month's newsletter has some great new resources and information on teaching, leadership and of course Teach Like a Champion. Don't forget we still have places available for our Teach Like a Champion workshop on 1 March and Leading Pedagogical Learning on 4 March.

Looking forward to my upcoming trip to the USA to update my Teach Like a Champion training and visit schools making a difference.

Quote of the Month

Participant from a Teach Like a Champion Masterclass

What could have been done different to enhance the workshop?

- The students could have found someone else to chase the snake away.
Only in Australia would a participant need to leave the workshop to deal with a snake.

Education Enclave – Danny Hyndman

I was privileged to be interviewed by Danny Hyndman from Education Enclave for his podcast series. It was a humbling experience to talk about my leadership journey, reflections as a leader and hopefully now a thought leader who is making a difference. Please see the link below to the podcast.
