Congratulations to Melita Patti and the wonderful staff from Wilsonton State School for their amazing presentation of how they have implemented Teach Like a Champion at the network meeting this week. Don't forget our next network meeting is Wednesday 5th June. Enrol through the website.

We had a great first Teach Like a Champion workshop in Melbourne. We are looking forward to our next Teach Like a Champion workshops –

- Sydney 17 June
- Melbourne 29 July
- Brisbane 16 August

Quote of the Month

Terrific techniques & practice of these / Pedagogical gold dust.

Leading Pedagogical Learning

It has been great to work with schools in the Leading Pedagogical Learning program in developing their Pedagogical Frameworks (High Yield Teaching Strategies, Lesson Series or Lesson Structure). All the Pedagogical Frameworks have had Teach Like a Champion techniques embedded through double planned documents and have created clear action steps for each element of the Pedagogical model.

Coaching Pedagogy

We are excited that from our Leading Pedagogical Learning workshop we have developed the Pedagogical Coaching program aligned to the "Get Better Faster" resource written by Paul Bambrick-Santoyo which is aligned to coaching teachers on implementing Teach Like a Champion. This program will build on existing teaching, leadership, and coaching skills through the Principles of Coaching – INTENT Granular Teaching Goals / techniques, LEARN Plan, Practice, Follow Up (See it, Name it, Do It Model) and FEEDBACK Praise, Probe and Plan.

Teach Like a Champion - Check for Understanding – Feedback Codes

Standardise the Format focuses on streamlining data-gathering and making your observations more efficient and accurate. In the video link below Ijeoma gives her students written feedback using a code. This give students feedback instantly and can also be used for anecdotal records.

Ijeoma's Math Feedback Codes
 D = Distribution Error
 C = Calculation Error
 I = Incorrect Exponent Rule
 S = Set up (Check the operation or order of terms)

Research / Evidence

Teach Like a Champion has been referenced in the AERO summaries. Follow the links below to see the reports.

- positive teacher–student relationships
- high expectations for student behaviour
- teaching routines

Cold Call – Culture

At the Engaging Academics workshop with Doug Lemov we looked at making sure we have a Cold Call Culture. Please see the framework below:

Preparation	Invitation & Appreciation	Formative Language	Peer validation
Give students time to think & ready their answers	Tell them that you've chosen them to honour their thinking	"Get us started" tells students answers should be useful not perfect & cues classmates to listen	Knowing that their peers valued their ideas motivates future participation
Turn and Talk Everybody Writes EW   T & T Transparent Wait Time	"Molly, I like what you wrote about x..."	"...can you get us started talking about ..."	"Who can build on Molly's idea?"

Resources

It was great to recently catch up with my colleague Dr Judi Newman who is the CEO of The Academy of Organisational Neuroscience Australia she is also the leading Australian expert in social cognitive neuroscience.
